Kristof Et Stefan Boxy – Photography Bart van Leuven

- A fascinating cookbook by fascinating culinary twins
- Breathtaking yet easy recipes for special occasions
- Trendy photography and layout

'One also tastes with the eyes.' This is the creed of the twin brothers Stefan and Kristof Boxy.

In addition to the taste, the presentation is an essential component of a successful meal. What seem simple creations turn out to give a smashing result, dead simple snacks are lifted up to a surprisingly high level by the alluring composition on the plate.

Bart van Leuven's photography and Inge Van Damme's layout (the couple who also did the Herborist books) brings out the artistic qualities of the culinary creations: sober and minimalist yet pure and strong to the extreme.

The result is one of the most innovative and surprising culinary books of the year.
