

150 x 240 mm | 128 pages
 numerous colour illustrations 4,700 words
 hardcover age group: 7+
 all rights available

Cuckoo, Fox and Hare!

Sylvia Vanden Heede illustrations Thé Tjong-Khing

- ▶ A new exciting and funny adventure of Fox, Hare and Owl
- ▶ Great illustrations by Thé Tjong-Khing
- ▶ For early readers and children with reading difficulties
- ▶ Nominated for the 'Gouden Uil Jeugdliteratuurprijs'

Fox is working in the garden. Suddenly he's disappeared. Where has he gone to? Has he gone on a trip? Hare doesn't know. She is worried. Together with Owl they go and look for Fox. Will they find him?

Since her debut in 1987, Sylvia Vanden Heede has already written over twenty books for children and young adults. Her books have often received prizes. For her story Wok van de Wilden, she won a 'Boekenwelp'. Fox and Hare, which was published in May 1998, received an award seven times as a 'Boekenleeuw' and a 'Jonge Gouden Uil'. Her book

Fox and Hare and the thief of Iek has recently been awarded the 'Zilveren Griffel' for the most beautiful children's book.

Thé Tjong-Khing was born in Java (Indonesia) but finished his studies in the Netherlands. He started his career as a cartoon artist, but later on he focused on children's books. Khing is now one of our most famous illustrators. He received a 'Gouden Penseel' – a prestigious award for illustrators - for his paintings in The dictionary of Fox and Hare. Where is the cake? was awarded with a 'Woutertje Pieterse' Prize and a 'Zilveren Penseel'.