The good old potato is back! Gone are the days it had to settle for a place behind pasta or rice. Popular television chef Christer Elfving lets us rediscover the value of potatoes, in a simple and creative way.

Elfving starts with the basics: the secrets of the simple art of cooking potatoes, and all those classic dishes that have been cooked for generations at home. After this start-up, he looks into his own inventive interpretations of the Belgian, Scandinavian, Mediterranean and Eastern cuisine, and treats us with some splendid salad recipes.

Christer Elfving is a popular Belgian radio and television cook. He appeared as chef in the Belgian cooking program Aan Tafel and co-hosted De wereld op je bord, a cooking program on Vitaya.
