Monkey and Bear: Here they are again

Frans Lasès – illustrations Sylvia Weve

- › Eighteen simple and recognisable stories for toddlers
- › Simple layout: each story has a picture plate
- › Illustrated by the talented Sylvia Weve

Monkey and Bear have lots of fun together, they play 'shop', they go to the playground or do a contest. They are funny, simple and surprising, and as Monkey and Bear want to stay good friends, each story has a good ending.

Each story begins and ends with the same sentences, which is both clear and pleasant for children.

Frans Lasès is a writer/director and is widely known for his children's formats on Dutch television. He also writes songs and stories.

Sylvia Weve has studied at the Arnhem Art Academy and lives in Amsterdam. She has already illustrated more than 100 books.
