Big
 On top of daddy's shoulders
 I am taller than a giant.
 When we run,
 When we trot
 Then I quickly grab my daddy's nose.
 Or his ears,
 Or his hair,
 We're riding faster than a train!
 I am tall,
 My daddy's small!

Little Tent
 Mummy's flutter skirts
 I have nicely put around me.
 No one sees me now.
 Like that funny aunt of mine.
 I don't shake a hand,

*I don't want a biscuit.
 No, I am not coming,
 Even when you call me.
 With the little tent around me
 Against mummy's leg I lean.
 And I'll stay then where I am.
 Till we will go home again.*
